To Relieve Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

If you have catarrhal deafness or head noises, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmitin (double strength), and add to it 1 pint of hot water and a little strained sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will give you quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breath-clogged ears should be cleared, and drooping into the throat. It is the best preparation, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has catarrhal deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Friswell have purchased the cottage house at 25 Grove street, from Mrs. Robert Champlin and will occupy it in the near future.

Public announcement was made on Thursday of what has been known here for some time in the selection by the state of Connecticut of a location at Bride's Lake in the town of East Lyme for the Connecticut State Farm for Women.

This is in accordance with an appropriation of $50,000 made by the last legislature for the purpose of establishing such a farm. Efforts were made by the Norwich Chamber of Commerce to interest the board of trustees in sites near this city, but the west Lyme site appealed most strongly to them.

The location chosen is on what is known as the Hibbs property on the shore of Bride's lake in the town of East Lyme. There are between 600 and 700 acres in the four farms so far included in holdings to be incorporated in the state farm. The Hibbs property of nearly 500 acres, with complete control of the lake, of 75 acres; the Angelo Phileas farm of approximately 200 acres, the F. H. Brown farm of 40 acres and the Arthur Beebe farm of 75 acres.

The price paid for these farms is said to be between $25,000 and $30,000. The Hibbs property is a desirable property for the state. On the Mrs. Frank W. Hibbs property are two modern dwellings, the farmhouse of 12 rooms and a barn, and a large garage. There is also one of the most sanitary dairies in the state, with cement floors, concrete silos, overhead trolley manure carriers, concrete washing and flushing tanks, and there are some 2,000 fruit trees, thousands of cords of wood and two deep wells of excellent water.

It is proposed to house every female now in the institutions in the state at the State Farm for Women, including those who have life sentences. There are to be segregated houses and cottages for those afflicted by disease.

The wifery of Bride's lake are to be cleared of pickers and other fish and stocked with salmon, which it is expected will provide an unlimited supply of fresh fish.

It is the intention of the trustees to erect more modern buildings so that ultimately 1,500 women may be cared for at the institution. The inmates will work at gardening during the summer, while small shops will be constructed for indoor labor in the winter.

Mrs. Anne Rogers Minor of Waterbury, a member of the board of trustees, has been an invaluable aid throughout, due to her knowledge of the conditions and her well known interest in matters pertaining to these unfortunate women.

It is proposed to establish an auto service temporarily from New London to the farm, which will be operated by a truck line for the transfer of goods from New London. Passenger traffic will be cared for from the State station.

The board of trustees of the Connecticut State Farm for Women consists of:

Chairman, William B. Bailey, New Haven; Secretary, Mrs. Anne Rogers Minor of Waterbury, Mrs. Helen V. Rogers of Hamden, George P. Clark of Terryville, Edward H. Hadden, and John H. Goss of Waterbury.

EAST LYME GETS NEW DORMITORY

Hibbs Property On Bride's Lake Taken For State Farm For Women—Between 600 and 700 Acres With Numerous Buildings—Ultimately 1,500 Women Inmates Will Be Accommodated There—Purchase Price Between $25,000 and $30,000.

One of the most important meetings of the year was held Tuesday evening, when the Student Government association voted on the housing system for the ensuing year, 1918-1919.

The matter of a senior dormitory had been discussed at previous meetings and a motion passed that the idea would be acceptable to a majority of the association. At the present time the sentiment regarding the house, the senior class voted to drop the matter if three-fourths of the class voted against the proposition. The result of the vote proved that the required number were against the matter and by a vote of 35 in favor, 25 opposed, the matter of a senior house was dropped.

The senior house was suggested owing to the fact that the class of 1919 would be the first class to graduate from the college and having no traditions or precedents to follow, it would have many plans and arrangements to make regarding graduation and senior customs. At the present time the students are scattered about campus in every dormitory and a large number of the senior class are town or day students.

Much discussion pro and con took place at the meeting held several weeks ago and considerable feeling against the plan developed.

The college is especially the student body is yet very small and the wisdom of allowing 40 or 50 students of one class to live in one house was considered a very questionable proposition.

Rooming System Adopted.

The matter of the senior dormitory being dropped, discussion as to the rooming system for the coming year to the faculty for consideration. These were:

1.—That students be allowed to remain in their present homes and that they sign up for respective rooms by a certain specified time. That after this time a list of remaining rooms be posted, and that sealed applications be received for the rooms which will be assigned in the order of application.

2.—That no student be allowed to remain in their present homes and that all rooms be assigned by lot.

3.—That students be assigned rooms with seniors having first choice, followed by freshmen and sophomores.

It was voted to combine plans 1 and 2, to read: That students be allowed to remain in their present homes and that they sign up for respective rooms by a certain specified time. That after this time a list of remaining rooms be posted, and that sealed applications be received for the rooms which will be assigned in the order of application.

Needless to say, the decision of the rooming system for next year is a delicate matter and one which will be watched with much interest for all concerned.

Busy Four Weeks Coming.

The calendar of events for the remaining four weeks of college has been completed and is completely filled with events and student activities. Every week has been allotted to a certain activity and has been extended to include Wednesday and Thursday.

The junior banquet, the first of its kind at the college, will be held at the Mohican hotel on Monday evening. The Dutch room has been engaged by the committee and will be fittingly decorated with blue and white.

Seventy students will attend the banquet and officers of the class will give short speeches. The toastmistress has been chosen and the menu has been decided upon, and many guarantees as to her identity have been offered.

Athletics Absorb Attention.

Athletics are the word of the hour at C. C. during the month of May and indoor activities have been relegated to the background. The schedule of games has not yet been posted, but will be completed in a few days.

The athletic season has been selected as follows: Ethel Mason, New Haven, catcher; Anna Flaherty, New Haven, pitcher; Anna Boughton, New Haven, first base; Dorothy Wulf, New Haven, second base; Charlotte H. New Haven, third base; Margaret Colwell, Granville, O., shortstop; California Smith, Middletown, right field; Helen Raychick, New Haven, left field; Agnes Leahy, Norwich, center field. The blue section cricket team, 1920, is as follows: Frances Barlow, Chicago, Ill., manager; Eleanor Easton, F. J. Betty Williams, Hartford; Eleanor Seaver, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Sara Lewis, New London; Jean Harris, Yonkers, N. Y.; Doris Jones, New Haven; Henrietta Costigan, New Rochelle, N. Y.; Jean Savin, Holyoke, Mass.; Dorothy Marvin, New Haven; Helen Perry, New York; Mildred Howard, Waterbury.

The White section volleyball team has been posted as follows: Loretta Roche, East Lyme; Marion Adams, New Haven; Helen Harris, New Haven; Hattie Goldman, New Haven; Dorothy Gregson, Norwich; Roberta Newton, Middletown; Dorothy Quintard, Stamford; Dorothy Adams, New Haven; Elizabeth Nagy, New Haven.

Tryouts for Class Crews.

Tryouts for the class crews are being held and practice is given all applicants. The crews will not be posted until the 28th of the month. The crews are the one phase of athletics which arouse more than usual interest and the enthusiasm manifested in the college during the recent week.

Bazaar for Belgian Fund.

Among approaching events of interest to the college student is the bazaar to be given on the roof garden of the Mohican hotel for the benefit of the college Belgian relief fund on Friday afternoon and evening, May 17th. Practically every student has donated to the cause and the bazaar is being held in the afternoon from 2-4 and a ball will be held in the evening.

Thrift Stamp Campaign.

A campaign for the sale of thrift stamps and war stamps is being held at the college. The stamps are being sold for the purpose of raising money for the war effort.

Students Sign for Summer Work.

A paper on the bulletin board on New London hall announces that 159 students have signed up for summer work. The work is being divided into various departments and the students are being assigned to their respective positions.

Will Give Play.

The New London association of collegiate alumni will present The Six Who Páse While the Lentils Boil at strong.

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE.

MESSAGE FROM TURKEY

To CONGREGATIONALISTS.
 Smyrna Missionary Speaks at Conference of the Six Churches.

The conference of six neighboring churches, Griswold, Lisbon, Plainfield, Preston City, Jewett City, was held Wednesday in Hanover Congregational church. At the morning session Rev. Dr. Pollock of Norwich read the scripture lesson, Rev. Albert Donnell of Jewett City offering prayer. The choir sang music rendered service. The choir was greatly appreciated and included the anthems Send Out Thy Light and The Lord is My Shepherd; also the offering, solo by Mrs. E. C. Way. How Lovely are Thy Dwellings.

In the morning sermon delivered by Rev. Henry W. Hulbert of Groton, who is active in the war work of the New London county Y. M. C. A., a strong impression was made that could be carried out in daily living. He selected the 28th of the month, an example of friendship and spoke of sincerity, unselfishness, patience and loyalty as its component parts.

During the noon hour a most appealing request of cold meat, salad, rolls, coffee and cake was served in the audience room of the parish house. The long tables were effectively decorated with apple blossoms. After dinner the inspection of the different rooms and convenient arrangements of the new parish house was enjoyed.

The address of Rev. J. Finlay Birse from Smyrna, Turkey, held the close attention of his listeners. Turkey is the only one of the non-Christian countries which has been set aside for Congregational work. The only missionary board doing work there is the A. B. C. F. M., he stated. Western ideas of science and religion are penetrating in Turkey today. That country has a most peculiar place in this war. It is a rich country with undeveloped resources, including valuable mines, and to Germany more important than Belgium, Paris or Poland. Germany has for a long time been acquiring railroad interests; their systematic study of the situation has resulted in a complete control of affairs.

The peasant Turk is usually a good man; if he does terrible things it is in the name of religion. In time of war he is not to be trusted for his lack of faith that faith that will give to them the idea of service to others instead of plans for extermination? We should stand for the conviction that no Christian can make their characters strong.

Architects Testify.

Francis G. Powell, a Boston architect, was on the stand in the case of Huber & Chittenden vs. H. B. Douglas, Inc. and D. S. Marsh in the superior court in New London Thursday morning.

He was on the stand for a short time, giving expert testimony. He was followed by James Sweeney, the New London architect who has previously testified in the case. The witness testified in regard to several wooden beams and stringers which were admitted as exhibits.
